

State Vehicle Usage/Mileage

State personnel may be allowed reimbursement for the use of his/her automobile for official state business within the State of Rhode Island at the current mileage rate when it is deemed economical and/or advantageous to the state. Those who are authorized to use their private automobiles on official state business within the State of Rhode Island are to be compensated for actual miles authorized and traveled.

See the State Controller's In State Travel Policy on the Office of Accounts and Control website for the most recent mileage rate communication at <http://controller.admin.ri.gov/documents/Policies//A-46%20In-State%20Travel%20Policy%20Effective%206-1-10.pdf>.

