

Newly Married

A newly married employee has sixty (60) days from the date of marriage to cover their spouse on their health coverage. If this is not done within this time period, the employee must wait until the open enrolment to change from individual to family plan.

