

Social Security

State employees are automatically included in the Social Security system. Deductions for social security are automatically deducted from an employee's total bi-weekly pay.

